Committee Reports

- Capacity Building Committee – In transition to youth prevention club
- New Members – Kenji Seta

Financial Committee

- Funding Requests – None
- Bank of the Pacific Account - $24,000
 - Financials: Authorized payment to Guns and Hoses $3,000.
 - Paul and Lyndsey traveled to DC National Leadership Conference to Coalitions.
 - Balance includes a $1000 donation from the Lady Elks in Raymond.
 - Grants are strict on how the money are spent.
 - Any gifts for the general fund will help provide events that TAC is known for.
 - The Coalition can engage in fundraising. Perhaps youth can be involved

Youth Arm Committee:

- Youth Arms Committee members not present at this point in this meeting.
- Paul reported TAC has been supporting after school program at Raymond 3-5 PM. Just wrapped up winter quarter with a big party: pizza, pinatas, dirt cups. 45 kids signed up to participate. This is a big turnout for a new program. All teachers and leaders are volunteers. Danielle Rosetta is managing the program so she can be contacted if you are interested.

Substance Use Prevention Committee – Abby B.

- This year they were updating with current knowledge and laws. They are reaching out to prevention clubs to involve students. One student who was recently contacted shared her own experiences with the policies. She expressed compassion to students who may be caught with drugs in a moving way. Paul and Liliana thanked Abby for her involvement and
